01

Love Spell oil • gone Friday

Sold every bottle on the table by 2 PM Friday. Three customers walked back Saturday for refills only to find a sold-out sign. Restock arrives Wednesday — DM us to hold one.

02 White Sage snap bar

Two out of three weekends in a row. Strong throw, clean cut — pairs with citrus or sandalwood depending on the room. Capped at 12 bars per restock so it always sells through fast.

03

Butterfly WallScents plug

All four units gone before Sunday open. Mother's Day demand picking up early — these will be the first thing to disappear next weekend too. Comment FOMO for the alert text.

04

Spring Fresh oil • last bottle Saturday

Goes in any wall warmer or reed bottle. Customer described it as 'clean laundry on a Sunday morning.' Four bottles left at Wednesday's restock.
